»»» BRIEF DESCRIPTION AND KEY TAKE-AWAYS:

- The IFHE Training Workshop, From Idea to Startup, was organized on the occasion of the 93rd birth anniversary of Dr. A.P.J. Abdul Kalam to honor his unparalleled contributions to science, innovation, and nation-building. The event aimed to celebrate his vision of empowering young minds to embrace creativity, innovation, and entrepreneurship as drivers of societal and economic progress. The workshop was a tribute to Dr. Kalam's vision of "igniting young minds" and promoting innovation-driven startups. It sought to inspire the participants by emphasizing the importance of strategic thinking, creative problem-solving, and entrepreneurial growth.
- The workshop commenced with a solemn and respectful prayer to Dr. A.P.J. Abdul Kalam's photograph, honoring his remarkable contributions to the nation and paying tribute to his visionary legacy. This was followed by a heartfelt welcome address by the organizing committee, which emphasized the significance of the event and its alignment with Dr. Kalam's ideals of innovation and youth empowerment.
- Dr. Suvrokamal Dutta delivered an extraordinary keynote, reflecting on his personal experiences with Dr. Kalam. He shed light on Kalam's values of humility, persistence, and an unwavering belief in youth-driven innovation. His anecdotes captivated the audience, offering a rare glimpse into Dr. Kalam's thought process and his vision for India as a hub of startups and innovation.

- Mr. Dhruv K Gera spoke about the transformative power of strategic management and creativity in solving complex societal problems. He encouraged students to think critically and explore interdisciplinary approaches to entrepreneurship.
- Mr. Varada Rajan Krishna delivered an energetic and motivational speech about the role of innovation in shaping entrepreneurial success. He shared real-world success stories of startups that originated from small ideas and grew into impactful ventures.
- A highly engaging interactive session followed, where participants asked questions and discussed their own innovative ideas. The speakers provided actionable advice, sparking motivation and enthusiasm among attendees.
- The event provided a unique platform for budding entrepreneurs and students to network with experts, discuss ideas, and seek mentorship.
- The program concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by Tanisha. Gratitude was expressed to the distinguished guests, faculty, and student volunteers for making the event a resounding success. A closing tribute to Dr. Kalam reiterated the importance of pursuing his vision of innovation-driven growth.
