

Participation in awareness campaign focused on child rights and the eradication of drugs

The Legal Aid Society of ICFAI Law School, IFHE, Hyderabad, participated in the NALSA (Child-Friendly Legal Services for Children) Scheme 2024, which focused on child rights and the eradication of drugs. The event was organized by the District Legal Services Authority of Ranga Reddy District, Telangana, and took place at the Saroornagar Indoor Stadium, LB Nagar on March 25, 2025, from 9 AM to 11 AM. Attendees included the District Judge of Ranga Reddy District, the head of the Telangana Anti-Narcotics Bureau, members of the Lions and Leo International Clubs, law college students, and school students from the Ranga Reddy District. A drama performance, motivational speeches, and an oath-taking ceremony were held for the "Say No to Drugs" campaign. Para-legal volunteers helped DLSA to organize the event.
