33rd Inter-University Moot Court Competition

Moot Court is an art of persuasive advocacy. Moot Court Competitions provide the law students a forum to practice the skills of appellate advocacy during their student life at the law school. The competition gives the students the experience of arguing before a mock court by simulating a court hearing on the basis of a hypothetical situation on a legal issue or problem, which has a contemporary relevance in the society. The participant is expected to analyze the problem, research the relevant law applicable to the issues involved, prepare written submissions called memorials, and present their oral arguments. The participants shall be adjudged by a panel of experts in law like judges, legal practitioners in law, academicians who shall be the touch stones to test the legal acumen of the participants. The competition's main objective is to inculcate argumentative and oratory skills among the students along with motivating them to understand the practical aspects of law.

The ICFAL Law School is organising Inter-University National Moot Court Competition jointly with Bar Council of India from March 30 to April 02, 2017.
