

Faculty Profile

Name: Dr. Sankar Oomaidurai

Designation: Asst. Professor

Teaching Areas: Business English,
Legal Language,
Legal Writing,
English for Specific Purpose,
Soft Skills.

Research Interests: Bilingualism,
Activity Based Teaching,
Education Technology,
Language and Literature.

Education: Ph. D: American and Caribbean Literatures, EFL-University, Hyderabad, 2017
MPhil in English Literature, EFL-University, Hyderabad, 2012
B.Ed in English Literature, EFL-University, Hyderabad, 2010
MA in English Literature, University of Hyderabad, Hyderabad, 2009
UGC NET in English Literature, 2014

Professional Experience:

1. Worked as an English Lecturer at Loyola Academy for Degree and PG College, Hyderabad.
2. Worked as a Content Writer in Excel Soft Services, Hyderabad.
3. Taught Communication Skills at Andhra Mahila Sabha, Hyderabad.
4. Took English Teaching Project with IGNIS Careers, Hyderabad.
5. Taught Spoken English at RISE Institute, Tamil Nadu.

Selected Publications

1. Published an abstract "Enslaving Darkness: Re-reading the Discourse of Fear in Harriet Jacobs Incidents in the Life of a Slave Girl" at the 6th Fear Horror Terror International Conference conducted by Inter-Disciplinary.Net, Oxfordshire, UK.
2. Presented a paper " Writing On 'Writing': The Discourse of 'Form' And 'Formlessness' In Helene Cixous' The Laugh of the Medusa" at International Conference on English Language and Literature conducted by International Academic and Industrial Research Solutions, Hyderabad, India.
3. Recited and published poems in the book "The Posy of the Poesy" and "Poet's Paradise" at International poetry festival, Guntur, India.