

Welcome Waves – Induction Event(13th September 2023)

Asana Club, in its inaugural event following the formation of a new committee, extended a warm welcome to the incoming batch of students. This event, marking the debut of the semester, served as an insightful introduction to the club's diverse domains and offered an excellent opportunity for recruiting new enthusiasts. The event unfolded with a multifaceted approach, encompassing engaging games, invigorating fitness challenges, and a creative platform through a short film and reel contest. These dynamic elements not only provided an entertaining and interactive experience but also offered a glimpse into the vibrant and multifarious activities that Asana Club has in store.

The event was skilfully hosted by none other than President Sravya and Vice President, lending their adept leadership and charismatic presence to the occasion.

Lamp-lighting:

The event commenced with a ceremonial lamp-lighting, graced by the presence of esteemed faculty members who inaugurated the proceedings.

Faculty mentor's speech:

Anjanna Matta, the esteemed faculty mentor of the club, took the podium to reflect upon the contributions of the former core committee. With heartfelt gratitude, he acknowledged their dedication and service to the club's mission. As the torch of leadership passed to the new committee, he extended his warmest wishes for their success in orchestrating a series of promising upcoming events.

Ex-President speech:

Former President Sri Pooja, in a heartfelt address, shared her invaluable experiences and lauded the unwavering support, creativity, and enthusiasm exhibited by every committee member during their tenure. She underscored the significance of collaborative efforts in achieving the club's mission of organizing successful events. Sri Pooja extended her warmest wishes to the newly inducted committee, expressing her confidence in their abilities to continue the club's legacy. Additionally, she reassured them of her team's readiness to offer assistance, guidance, and innovative ideas whenever needed, fostering a seamless transition and a future filled with accomplishments.

AND NOW THE FUN GAMES START

ARTS - Relay Drawing:

The event kicked off with an entertaining game known as "Relay Drawing," a delightful icebreaker that involved enthusiastic participants selected from the lively crowd. The rules of the game were elegantly simple yet intriguing: participants formed teams of four, and two-spirited teams participated. The game began with the first member receiving a randomly assigned word to depict through their artistic talents. Subsequently, each team member passed on their interpretation to the next, creating a delightful chain of artistic interpretation. The last team member ventured a guess based on the artistic relay that had unfolded before their eyes. In a captivating twist, neither of the teams managed to win.

GYM - Pushups challenge:

The participants embarked on a simultaneous push-up challenge, where the ultimate victor would be the one demonstrating the highest number of impeccably executed push-ups. Four enthusiastic individuals from the audience stepped forward to take part in this physical feat.

Winner: Anudeep 1st Year.

Single leg balance challenge:

The subsequent game tested participants' balance as they valiantly attempted to stand on a single leg for the longest duration, with victory hinging on endurance. Remarkably, members of the core committee themselves willingly embraced this challenge, and it was the Art Coordinator who emerged the winning place, demonstrating exceptional poise and stamina.

Winner: Seetu (Arts Coordinator).

SHORT FILM – Reel contest:

An exciting reel contest unfolded, featuring 3 captivating reels illuminated on the screen. In an interactive twist, a Google form was circulated amongst the audience, allowing them to cast their votes and voice their preferences. Ultimately, it was the 2nd reel, a delightful creation crafted by Rohith and Sushik, that captured the hearts and admiration of the viewers.

Short film video:

A captivating short video graced the screen, skillfully spotlighting the club's countless dimensions, expertly crafted to captivate and inspire potential newcomers to join. Notably, the video showcased compelling performances by the club's Technical Head, Rohith, and the Short Film Head, Sushik.

A group photograph captured the essence of the club, featuring its key members alongside esteemed faculty, including the club's dedicated faculty mentor.

