

Navaratri Ethnic Day Event Report

11th October, 2024

Location: FST Auditorium

Organized By: Spotlit Club

1. Event Overview

Navaratri Ethnic Day, organized by Spotlight Club, was a vibrant celebration of the victory of good over evil. The highlight was the portrayal of Mahishasura Vadh, depicting Goddess Durga's triumph, and the display of handcrafted props representing the Nine Forms of Durga. The event fostered cultural pride and community spirit among students, faculty, and staff.

2. Preparation and Setup

The auditorium was transformed into a festive setting, with special emphasis on the representation of the nine forms of Durga. The stage for Mahishasura Vadh was meticulously designed with detailed backdrops, lighting, and props, adding to the immersive experience.

3. Event Highlights

- Nine Forms of Durga: Handmade props symbolized each form, enhancing the visual and spiritual engagement.

- Mahishasura Vadh: A dramatic reenactment of the battle between Goddess Durga and Mahishasura.

- Live Streaming: To ensure no one missed out, the event was broadcast live on the club's Instagram page.

4. Promotion and Audience Engagement

The event was promoted extensively through Instagram, WhatsApp, and email. The high turnout was a testament to the success of these promotional efforts, with enthusiastic participation from students, faculty, and staff.

5. Feedback and Outcomes

Participants praised the creativity and cultural depth of the event. Despite the high turnout, the event was successfully managed, and the live streaming ensured broader engagement.

---

6. Conclusion

Navaratri Ethnic Day was a resounding success, with the Mahishasura Vadh performance and the Nine Forms of Durga display captivating the audience. We extend our heartfelt thanks to the Director, Student Affairs, faculty, and volunteers. Their support and efforts ensured the event's success, even with the overwhelming audience turnout.

