The event commenced promptly at 11:00 AM, with all participating students assembling by 11:10 AM. It began with a solemn prayer, fostering a sense of unity and purpose among attendees.

Following the prayer, the organizers provided an overview of the event, highlighting the annual nature of 'Vidyadhan: The Book Donation Drive' and its objective to contribute positively to the educational journeys of students in need. The Aksharabhyas Program and the Paritantra Club expressed deep gratitude towards the University for its continuous support in facilitating this impactful initiative.

Notable faculty members in attendance included Dr. Vijaya Lakshmi, Dr. Rohini and Dr. Anjana Matta, among others were welcomed with respect and invited to share their thoughts, hoping to inspire and motivate the assembled students. Each faculty member's presence underscored the institution's commitment to community service and educational outreach.

Dr. S. Vijaya Lakshmi, the Registrar of , began her speech by reminiscing about her childhood and schooling experiences in her native village. Her speech conveyed a sense of connection and empathy, inspiring the students by highlighting the importance of perseverance and education. She expressed her happiness in seeing the enthusiasm of the young students gathered at the event and shared a warm assurance that she would offer her support to help meet their educational needs.

Following the inspiring speeches, the members of the Aksharabhyas Program, Paritantra Club, and faculty began distributing books and snacks to the students. This segment of the event fostered a lively atmosphere, as faculty and club members engaged with students individually, taking time to converse and share encouragement. The students' excitement was palpable as they received books that would aid them in their studies, and they openly expressed their gratitude. This interaction not only created a warm, supportive environment but also strengthened the bond between the university representatives and the students.

The 'Vidyadhan: The Book Donation Drive' proved to be a significant effort in fostering an environment of academic encouragement and support for underprivileged students. By reinforcing the values of collaboration and community engagement, this event has not only provided essential educational resources but also strengthened the bridge between students and faculty. The Aksharabhyas Program and Paritantra Club remain dedicated to continuing this drive annually, aiming to uplift and empower more students each year.
