“Lex et Fiscus, 2026: A Conference on Corporate and Tax Laws” was successfully organised on 20th and 21st April 2026 with the objective of fostering academic dialogue on contemporary developments in corporate governance and taxation laws. The conference brought together academicians, legal practitioners, research scholars, and students from across India and abroad to deliberate upon emerging legal and regulatory challenges.

Objectives of the Conference:

- To examine evolving issues in corporate law and taxation in the context of digital transformation.
- To analyse regulatory challenges in domestic and international taxation.
- To encourage interdisciplinary research and academic engagement.
- To bridge the gap between theoretical knowledge and practical legal developments.

Participation and Structure:

- Total Participants: Approximately 90
- Research Papers Presented: 65
- Mode: Hybrid (Online & Offline)
- Sessions: 4 Technical Sessions + Inaugural & Valedictory Sessions

The conference witnessed active participation from national and international delegates, ensuring diverse perspectives and rich academic discourse.

Technical Sessions Overview:

- Theme 1: Corporate Governance, Regulation and Digital Transformation
- Theme 2: Corporate Restructuring, Insolvency and Financial Markets
- Theme 3: Domestic Taxation – Compliance, Reform and Sectoral Impact
- Theme 4: International, Emerging and Futuristic Tax Regimes

Key Outcomes and Takeaways:

The conference resulted in the following major insights:

- Need for regulatory harmonisation across corporate, taxation, and technological domains.
- Shift from reactive to proactive governance models.
- Integration of technology with human oversight and accountability.
- Importance of balancing efficiency with fairness in legal frameworks.
- Necessity for India-specific reforms rather than adopting global models without contextual adaptation.
