SOCIAL MEDIA REPORT

Introduction

Makar Mahotsav was celebrated with great enthusiasm at the FST Campus on 13th January. The event was organised by the Asana Club with the aim of promoting cultural unity, creativity, and festive spirit among students. The celebration witnessed active participation from various cultural clubs and students, making the event lively and memorable.

Event Management and Decorations

The Asana Club efficiently managed the overall planning and execution of the event.

The club took responsibility for event management, decorations, and coordination of activities. The campus was beautifully decorated, creating a vibrant and festive atmosphere that reflected the true essence of Makar Sankranti.

RANGOLI COMPETITION

A Rangoli Competition was conducted by the Asana Club at the 2nd entrance of the campus. Students enthusiastically participated and showcased their creativity through colorful and traditional rangoli designs. The competition added charm to the event and attracted the attention of many visitors.

CULTURAL PERFORMANCES

The Dansation Club presented an energetic dance performance in the lawn area, which was well-received by the audience and added excitement to the celebrations. The Astitva Music Club performed in the auditorium, captivating the audience with their musical presentation and contributing to the cultural richness of the event.

CONCLUSION

Makar Mahotsav was a grand success due to the collective efforts of the Asana Club and participating cultural clubs. The event provided a platform for students to express their talents and celebrate tradition together. Overall, the celebration strengthened cultural bonding and created joyful memories for everyone present.
