Each of the leaders expressed gratitude for the opportunity to lead and nurture the club, emphasizing the lessons they learned and their hopes for the club's future under new leadership.

Director's Speech

Following the resignation speeches, Mr. K.L. Narayana, the Director of ICFAI Tech, addressed the gathering. He commended the outgoing committee for their dedication and hard work in building the Asana Club into what it is today. He also encouraged the new committee to continue the legacy with fresh ideas and enthusiasm. Mr. Narayana emphasized the importance of the club's role in fostering fitness, creativity, and teamwork among students.

Vote of Thanks

The event was concluded with a thoughtful vote of thanks from Dr. Anjana Matta, who appreciated the efforts of both the outgoing and incoming teams. He expressed his excitement about the future of the club under the new leadership and extended his best wishes to all members.

Certificates

The active members of the Asana Club were recognized for their continued involvement and contributions. They were presented with certificates in appreciation of their hard work and dedication to the club's mission.

To commemorate the transition, all attendees, including the outgoing core committee, the new leadership team, and active members, gathered for a group photo, capturing the spirit of unity and celebration.

The event successfully marked a new chapter for the Asana Club, highlighting the achievements of the past leadership while welcoming the future with excitement and anticipation.
