

Name: Rama Kiran Mareedu

Designation: Assistant Professor, ICFAI School of Architecture,
IFHE

Teaching Areas: Sustainable architecture, Architectural
Design, Computer Applications, Building Information
Modelling

Research areas: Climate Responsive Architecture and Sustainable Design, Human Psychology and Architecture,
Universal Design

Education:

Post-Graduation: Master of Architecture (Construction Management), JNAFAU Hyderabad,
(Class 2022)

Graduation: Bachelor of Architecture, SPA Delhi, (Class 2014)

Selected Publications

1. Contributed to measured drawings for the book Orchha and Beyond: Design at the court of Raja Bir Singh Dev, by Edward Leland Rothfarb, Marg Foundation (Mumbai, India), ISBN 8192110613, 9788192110615
2. Documentation and preparation of drawings for 'Conservation Master Plan of President's Estate, New Delhi' by Indian National Trust for Art and Cultural Heritage (INTACH).
3. Presented 'Psychological Approach to Recreational Spaces in Offshore Architecture' to Samsung Heavy Industries Pvt Ltd, Noida.
4. Presented 'Smart Energy' as a part of the seminar series themed 'Smart Cities' at SPA Delhi.
5. Dissertation on 'Architecture and National Identity' with research question being 'Has the search for Indian identity succeed in reviving the cultural memory?'