Dr. D. Sudhakara Rao, a seasoned IRS officer of the 1999 batch, brings a wealth of experience as the Principal Commissioner of Income Tax in Hyderabad. With a background in M. Sc. and M. Phil. from prestigious institutions, Dr. Rao has served in key locations such as Chennai, Mumbai, and Bangalore, holding significant roles in investigation and appeals. Notable achievements include spearheading amendments to exemptions in the Income Tax Act and conducting surveys to detect fraudulent claims, contributing significantly to tax collections.

His supervisory experience underscores his commitment to excellence, with a focus on sustainable tax additions and meticulous assessments resulting in the cancellation of registrations for violative Trusts / institutions. Currently overseeing assessment units in Hyderabad and Visakhapatnam, Dr. Rao conducts frequent review meetings, providing guidance on complex cases and ensuring adherence to CBDT directives. With empanelment for Additional Secretary and a desire to serve at the national level, Dr. Rao's dedication to public service remains unwavering.
